To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased and honored to write this letter of referral for Ron Rossetti, a friend and colleague for almost twelve years. Ron has been a great inspiration and most supportive to me in my own professional endeavors. He is hands down the most dedicated individual. Ron constantly strives to help friends and colleagues out of difficult situations. I can rely on him when I have a question or need support.

Recently, Ron has helped to found the non-profit organization, The International Alliance for Mental Health (IAMH) and is the co-founder of the non-profit, The Greater Hampstead Bipolar Support Group (DBSA). Both foundations provide valuable work and resources to leagues of individuals dealing with the effects of bipolar depression. Ron himself is in recovery and is constantly working to improve his own life, the life of his family and friends affected by this disease.

Ron is an outstanding individual who strives to make his world and the world of those he can affect a better place. Ron has my unconditional support in any and all endeavors throughout his life.

If you have any questions, or if I can be any further assistance please contact me.

Thank you for your time.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. Thomas A. Giammatteo, N.D., D.C., P.T.
